MANAGING GLOBALIZATION
IN THE ASIAN CENTURY
“Prema-Chandra Athukorala has risen to prominence in a country, and a university, which are amply endowed with world class expertise in Economics. While his writings have focused largely on international and developmental policies in Asia, they also have relevance beyond Asia. This celebratory volume is a fitting tribute by some of his many distinguished friends and admirers to a major scholar.”

Jagdish Bhagwati

This book honours a brilliant scholar, and also offers a collection of excellent papers on the Asia-Pacific economies by his friends and colleagues who are esteemed scholars. It provides an important reading for scholars and policymakers to learn more about contemporary economic issues in the region.”

Jong-Wha Lee
