Citizens, Civil Society and Heritage-Making in Asia
The ISEAS – Yusof Ishak Institute (formerly Institute of Southeast Asian Studies) is an autonomous organization established in 1968. It is a regional centre dedicated to the study of socio-political, security, and economic trends and developments in Southeast Asia and its wider geostrategic and economic environment. The Institute’s research programmes are grouped under Regional Economic Studies (RES), Regional Strategic and Political Studies (RSPS), and Regional Social and Cultural Studies (RSCS). The Institute is also home to the ASEAN Studies Centre (ASC), the Nalanda-Sriwijaya Centre (NSC), and the Singapore APEC Centre.

ISEAS Publishing, an established academic press, has issued more than two thousand books and journals. It is the largest scholarly publisher of research about Southeast Asia from within the region. ISEAS Publishing works with many other academic and trade publishers and distributors to disseminate important research and analyses from and about Southeast Asia to the rest of the world.

Institute of Sociology, Academia Sinica is devoted (1) to implement indigenous research and to build up the identity of Taiwanese sociology; (2) to strengthen research on neighboring societies, aiming to foster regional and cross-national comparative studies; (3) to deepen and further to systematize the findings of important fields of sociology; (4) to explore groundbreaking and distinctive research areas; (5) to promote collaboration with domestic and international sociological institutions and to enhance the academic status of Taiwanese sociology.

The International Institute for Asian Studies (IIAS) is a global humanities and social sciences research institute and knowledge exchange platform. It aims to contribute to a better and more integrated understanding of present-day Asian realities as well as to rethink “Asian Studies” in a changing global context. IIAS acts as a global mediator, bringing together academic and non-academic institutes in Asia and other parts of the world, including cultural, societal and policy organizations. Originally established in 1993 by the Dutch Ministry of Education as an inter-university institute, IIAS today is based at Leiden University, where it works as a globally oriented interfaculty institute with strong connections throughout the Netherlands, Europe, Asia and beyond.
