

INDEX

Note: Page numbers followed by “n” denote endnotes.

A

- Abdul Razak bin Hussain, 21
- “academic oligarchs”, 61–62
- administration level, 170–71, 180–81
- All-Party Report (1956), 15–16
- Asmah Hj. Omar, 39

B

- Bahasa Malaysia, 31
 - see also* Malay language
- Barnes Report (1951), 21
- Basic Education Law (1973), 171, 190n7
- bilingual educational policy, 6, 17–18, 29, 77
- bimbingan belajar*, 115
- Blinder-Oaxaca Decomposition, 112, 113, 118
- Borneo Child Aid Society, 159
- Bumiputra Economic Empowerment Plan (BEEP), 86, 92, 106
- Bumiputra* students, 3, 85, 86, 94
 - enrolment of, 91, 92
 - JPA scholarship, 95–96
 - labour force impact, 94–95
 - meritocracy policy, 94
 - primary school access, 11
 - “racial quota” policy, 24

C

- Catholic schools, 111–12
- centralized education system, 2, 4, 177
- Chalapati, S., 68
- China, foreign language in, 37
- Chinese educationists, 46
- Chinese-medium schools, 18
- Christian (private) schools, 10, 124–26
- Client Interface Day, 158
- cognitive-academic language proficiency, 47
- common language policy, 37, 40–42
- Comprehensive Development Plan, 178
- compulsory education, in Indonesia, 114
- Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA), 92

D

- decentralization policy, 4–5, 12, 166
 - benefit of, 188
 - definition of, 188
 - Framework for Social and Economic Reform, 178–80
 - models and debates, 176–78
- Democratic Action Party, 46

- drop-out rate for Orang Asli children, 149 primary school, 145
 in rural and urban government schools, 148
- E
- Early Intervention Reading and Writing Class, 157
- Educate A Child programme, 163
- Education Act (1961), 41, 155
- Education Act (1996), 23–24
- educational language policy, in Malaysia, 37, 44, 49
- Education Bill (1996), 44
- Education Blueprints, 106–107
- education ethos, 167–68, 186
- Education For All (EFA), 173
- Education Ordinance (1952), 21
- education systems, in Southeast Asia,
 1–2
- Eighth Higher Education National Development Plan, 64
- English language
 in China, 37
 English Language Syllabus (2010), 30 as “form of cultural capital”, 3 global spread of, 7–8
 in Malaysia, 8, 20–26, 28–29, 31
 medium of instruction, 4, 23–24
 in Singapore, 3, 7, 15–20, 26–27, 29–30
 valorization of, 4
- English-medium education, 18, 42–47
- “English programme”, 72, 76, 77
- enrolment, Malaysian higher education, 91–92
- F
- Fenn-Wu Report, 16, 21
- Fifteen Years First Long-Range Plan
 on Higher Education, 63
- financial assistance, to students,
 95–97
- First Long-Range Plan of Thailand
 Higher Education, 60, 64
- First Malaysia Plan (1966–70), 142
- first-order changes, 60
- five-year transformation plan
 (2013–18), 164n7
- foreign direct investments (FDIs), 42
- foreign language programme, 71, 72
- Framework for Social and Economic Reform (FESR), 178–80
- G
- Goh Chok Tong, 19
- Goh Report (1979), 18
- government reforms, education sector, 11–12
- Graduate Employment Management
 Scheme, 103
- Gred Purata Sekolah (GPS), 152
- gross national income (GNI), 86
- H
- “Hari Bertemu Pelanggan”, 158
- Higher Education Fund Corporation, 97
- higher education, in Malaysia.
See Malaysian higher education
- higher education institutions (HEIs),
 84, 89, 108
- Higher Education Student Loan
 Fund, 87
- hluttaw*, in Myanmar, 168, 182
- Humana Child Aid Society Sabah, 158–60
- Human Development Index, 173
- I
- inclusive education programmes, 157
- Individual Education Plans (IEPs), 160

- Indonesia Family Life Survey (IFLS), 113, 119, 120
- Indonesian higher education, 111–13, 138–39
- compulsory education, 114
 - with correction of selectivity bias, 128–32
 - descriptive statistics, 120–26
 - enrolment rate, 114–15
 - formal school system, 113–14
 - higher education participation, 114–15
 - model and empirical strategy,
115–18
 - non-linear decomposition logit of,
132–38
 - parents' education background, 132
 - private and public Islam schools, gap between, 136–38
 - private Christian school, 124–26
 - sampling procedure, 119–20
 - selection bias, 116, 128, 130
 - upper secondary school choice, 126–28
- Indonesian secondary school level, 10
- institutional culture, 167, 187–89
- Integrated Special Education
Programmes, 157
- internationalization of higher education in Thailand.
See Thai higher education,
internationalization of
- international programme, in Thailand, 9, 70–73
- adjunct lecturers, 76
 - American lecturer in, 73
 - BBA programme, 75
 - bilingual programme, 77
 - elusiveness of, 78
 - English programme, 72, 76, 77, 79
 - expansion of, 68–69
 - foreign and Thai lecturers in, 73–74
 - full-time lecturers, 76
 - guest lecturers, 76
 - teaching methods in, 76
- international schools, development of, 50–51
- Islamic (private) schools, 10–11
- J
- Jabatan Perkhidmatan Awam (JPA) scholarship, 95–96
- Japan public schools, 112
- K
- Knight, Jane, 59, 62
- knowledge-based economy (KBE), 42
- Kolej Tunku Abdul Rahman (KTAR), 88
- L
- “laissez-faire” policy, 78–79
- “language socialization”, 52
- Lee Kuan Yew, 16
- Lim Kit Siang, 46
- Literacy and Numeracy Screening
(LINUS), 48, 161, 164n8
- M
- Mahathir Mohamad, 23, 44
- mainstream integrated schools, 157
- Malay-English bilingualism, 21, 38, 47
- Malay language
- diglossic relationship with English,
8, 38, 52, 53
 - Malaysia's integrative language,
3, 7
 - MBMMBI policy and, 39
 - medium of instruction, 22, 24, 27,
44
 - national identity marker, 3, 27
 - as Singapore's national language,
16, 29

- Malaysia
- common language policy, 37, 40–42
 - educational language policy, 37, 40, 44
 - Education Bill (1996), 44
 - English-medium education, 42–47
 - globalization, 36
 - international schools, development of, 50–51
 - knowledge-based economy, 42
 - by linguistic nationalism, 40
 - Malay-English bilingualism, 38
 - MBMMBI policy, 38–40, 47–52
 - National Accreditation Board Bill (1996), 45
 - National Council on Higher Education Bill (1996), 44
 - nation-building process in, 39–40, 52
 - native English speakers, 37
 - new educational policy, 41
 - and non-Malay students, 39–40, 49
 - Private Higher Education Bill, 45
 - rural students in, 52
- Malaysia Development Plans, 84, 85
- Malaysia Education Blueprint, 31, 47
- Malaysian higher education, 9–10, 83, 105
- academic staff qualifications, 99–100
 - access to, 86–91
 - admission based on meritocracy, 92–94
 - demand for, 87
 - employability of university graduates, 103–4
 - enrolment patterns, 91–92
 - equity issues, 91–97
 - financing for research, 108
 - human capital growth, 107
 - impact on labour force, 94–95
 - implementing development policies, 106–107
 - internationalization agenda, 104
 - international rankings, 101–3
 - loans for study, 97
 - management of change, 107
 - measures of performance, 100
 - meritocracy to increase quality, 108–9
 - methodology and data, 84–85
 - national rating of, 100–101
 - policy framework, 85–86
 - postgraduate education, 89–91
 - privatization of, 5
 - prizing autonomy, 108
 - provision, 88–89
 - quality deficits, 97–98
 - race-based preferential admission policies, 5
 - secondary schooling, quality of, 98–99
 - strategic planning, 106
 - student financial assistance, 95–97
- Malaysian Higher School Certificate (STPM), 92, 94
- Malaysian language planning, 6–7, 27
- attitude towards English, 25
 - Barnes Report (1951), 21
 - challenges, 31
 - Education Act (1996), 23–24
 - English, as medium of instruction, 23–24
 - English in education, 8
 - Fenn-Wu Report (1951), 21
 - language and identity, 27–29
 - linguistic history, 26, 28
 - Malay, as national language, 22, 25–26, 29
 - Malay language, 3, 7
 - MBMMBI, 24, 31
 - 1952 Education Ordinance, 21
 - non-Malays, preference for English, 8
 - PPSMI, 23, 24

- Private Higher Education
 Institution Act (1996), 23–24
 Razak Report (1956), 21–22
 Malaysian Ministry of Education, 142
 Malaysian primary education, 11,
 142–43
 drop-out rates, 145, 148
 Education Act (1961), 155
 ethnic group membership, 148–50 government expenditure on education, 154–55
 national examination, students’ performance on, 151–53
 net enrolment ratio, 143–44
 net intake rate, 144–45
 “no school fees” policy, 155 out-of-school children, 146, 147, 150 programmes affecting access and retention, 156–60
 Razak Report (1956), 156
 socio-economic groups, 146
 special needs students, 150–51
 student-teacher ratio, 151
 survival rate, 145
 teacher’s qualification, 163n4 transformation plan (2013–25), 162 urban/rural residents, 146–48
 Malaysian Qualifications Agency:
 Rating System for Higher Education Institutions, 100
 Malaysia’s Vision 2020, 86
 matriculation examination, 190n14
 Memartabatkan Bahasa Malaysia
 Memperkukuh Bahasa Inggeris
 (MBMMBI), 24, 31, 38–40, 47–52
 meritocracy to increase quality, 108–109 student admissions based on, 92–94
 Ministry of Education (MOE), 84, 142
 five-year transformation plan
 (2013–18), 164n7
 governance in education, 169
 institutional culture, 5, 167, 186, 187 levels of administration, 170
 promoting access and retention,
 157, 164n6
 Ministry of Education and Culture
 (MEC), 114
 Ministry of Higher Education
 (MOHE), 84, 101, 103
 Ministry of National Education
 (MNE), 114
 Ministry of Religious Affairs (MRA),
 114
 Ministry of University Affairs (MUA),
 64, 78
 Mon National Education Committee
 (MNEC), 185
 Mon State, national education system,
 167–68, 184–85
 multiculturalism, 2
 multilateral organizations, 4
 Myanmar/Burma, primary and secondary education administration level, 170–71,
 180–81
 Basic Education Law (1973), 171,
 190n7
 2008 Constitution, 171
 contemporary provision of, 173–75
 decentralization in.
 See decentralization policy
 deconcentration form, 179 fiscal level, 181–82
 government in, 168–69
 Human Development Index, 173
 institutional culture of, 186–88 language and literature, 173
 matriculation examination, 190n14
 Ministry of Education, 167, 169–72
 Mon State, 167–68
 national education systems, 182
 National Network for Education
 Reform, 172

political level, 182
 Simla Scheme, 173
 Thein Sein, 168, 172, 178, 190n4
 Thirty-Year National Action Plan on Education, 171, 179
 top-down political culture, 169
 Yangon Region, 167–68
 MyQuest (Malaysian Quality
 Evaluation System for Private Colleges), 100, 101

N

Nanyang University, 18
 National Accreditation Board Bill
 (1996), 45
 National Council on Higher
 Education Bill (1996), 44
 National Education Act (2003), 61
 National Education Bill, 172
 National Education Commission, 172
 “national education” systems, 182
 National Higher Education Fund Act
 (1997), 97
 National Language Act, 41
 National Network for Education
 Reform, 172
 National-Type Chinese Secondary
 Schools (NTCSSs), 41
 National University of Malaysia, 85
 National University of Singapore
 (NUS), 101–2
 nation-building process, in Malaysia,
 39–40
 Ne Win, 173
 net enrolment ratio (NER), 143–44, 153, 157
 net intake rate (NIR), 144–45
 New Economic Model (NEM), 86, 106
 New Economic Policy (NEP), 43, 85,
 86, 95, 153
 new educational policy, 41

Ninth Malaysia Plans (2006–10), 154
 “no school fees” policy, 155
 non-Malay students
 in Malaysia, 39–40, 49
 preference for English, 8

O

Office of Higher Education
 Commission (OHEC), 64, 68, 72,
 78
 Orang Asli
 drop-out rates, 149
 enrolment rates among, 3, 11
 poor performance, 153 poverty rate, 149
 overseas study
 JPA scholarship, 95
 Malaysian students, 87

P

Penan community, in Sarawak, 146
 Pengajaran dan Pembelajaran Sains
 dan Matematik dalam Bahasa
 Inggeris (PPSMI), 23, 24
 Perbadanan Tabung Pendidikan
 Tinggi Nasional (PTPTN), 97
 PISA. See Programme for International Student Assessment
 (PISA)
 political decentralization, 191n28
 Poor Students Trust Fund (2003), 157 poverty
 among Orang Asli, 149
 in Malaysia, 146, 163n2
 pre-schools
 Humana, 159
 Malaysian government’s investment in, 155
 primary schooling, in Malaysia.
See Malaysian primary education
 private Christian schools, 10, 124–26
 Private Higher Education Bill, 45

- Private Higher Education Institution Act (1996), 23–24
- privatization of education, 5, 180
- Programme for International Student Assessment (PISA), 25, 98
- Q
- Quality Assurance (QA), 62
- quality of education
- higher education institutions, 100, 104
 - Malaysia, primary schooling in, 151–53
 - meritocracy and, 108–109
 - multilateral organizations, 4
 - secondary schooling, 98–99
 - Thai education, 70–78, 80
- quality of lecturers, 76
- quality of students, 43, 108
- R
- “racial quota” policy, 24
- Rahman Talib Report, 22, 41
- Razak Report, 21–22, 40–41, 156
- Rohingya children, educational access, 149–50
- S
- Sabah
- refugee children in, 150
 - retention programme, 157–58
- Sabah Special Task Force, 162
- Sabah State Education Department, 158
- Samad Said, 47
- School Improvement Programme, 161
- School Milk Programme, 157
- second-order changes
- definition of, 60
 - without first-order changes, 70–78
- secondary schooling, quality of, 98–99
- SETARA, 100, 101
- Sijil Pelajaran Malaysia (SPM), 48, 152
- Simla Scheme, 173
- “Singapore English”, 30
- Singapore’s language policies, 27
- All-Party Report (1956), 15–16
 - bilingual education policy, 17–18
 - English, as working language, 17–18
 - “first language”, 32n1
 - Goh Report (1979), 18
 - issues-related to, 15
 - language and identity, 29
 - official languages, 6–7
 - Singlish, 19–20, 30
 - “Speak Good English Movement”, 19
- Singlish, 19–20, 30
- Special Comprehensive Model School, 158
- special education schools, 157
 - special needs students, 150–51
- Spolsky, Bernard, 52
- state-level policymaking, 62–66
- STPM. See Malaysian Higher School Certificate (STPM)
- student financial assistance, 95–97
 - student-teacher ratio, 151
- Supplementary Food Programme, 156
- Supplementary Reading Programme, 162
- T
- TalentCorp, 104
- Tenth Malaysia Plans (2011–15), 154, 161, 163n5
- tertiary education enrolment, in Malaysia, 88–89
- Thai higher education,
- internationalization of, 5–6, 8–9
 - definition of, 59
 - economic growth, 63
- Eighth Higher Education National Development Plan, 60

- Fifteen Years First Long-Range Plan on Higher Education, 63
- First Long-Range Plan of Thailand Higher Education, 60, 64
- first-order changes, 60
- foreign students participating in, 68
- growth of, 67
- idiosyncratic characteristics, 60
- international programme.
See international programme, in Thailand
- Memorandums of Understanding, 69–70
- proliferation of students, 68–69
- second-order changes, 60
- state policy on, 62–66
- teaching methods in, 76
- trajectory of, 62–63
- triangle of coordination, 61–62
- Thein Sein, 168, 172, 178, 190n4
- Thirty-Year National Action Plan on Education, 171, 179
- TIMSS. See Trends in International Mathematics and Science Study (TIMSS)
- Township Education Officers, 183
- transformation plan of Malaysia (2013–25), 162
- transnational corporations (TNCs), 36–37, 42
- transnational education (TNE) enrolment, 104
- Trends in International Mathematics and Science Study (TIMSS), 98
- triangle of coordination, 61–62
- Tuition Aid Scheme, 157
- U
- Ujian Nasional (UN), 114
- Ujian Penilaian Sekolah Rendah (UPSR), 152
- UNESCO Universal Declaration on Cultural Diversity (2001), 3
- United Examinations Certificate (UEC), 94
- United Malays National Organisation (UMNO), 43
- United Nations Children’s Fund (UNICEF), 160, 162
- Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia (UKM), 44, 85
- Universiti Putra Malaysia (UPM), 102
- Universiti Sains Malaysia (USM), 102
- Universiti Teknologi Malaysia (UTM), 102
- Universiti Teknologi MARA (UiTM), 85, 91, 92
- University Act Bill, 172
- university education, demand for, 4
- University of Malaya (UM), 22, 83, 101, 102
- University of Singapore, 18, 83
- U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO), 102
- V
- Van der Wende, M.C., 60
- “vernacular globalization”, 38
- Y
- Yang di-Pertuan Agong, 47
- Yangon Region, 167–68, 184
- Yayasan MARA (MARA Foundation), 85