

Lee Kwai Lim (1877–1936), Hau-Shik's father.

Lee Joy Weng (1849–95), Hau-Shik's grandfather.

The tomb of Lee Kwai Lim, Hau-Shik's father, taken in 1984.

The young Hau-Shik

Horse-riding at Cambridge

Hau-Shik and his favourite mode of transport during his time at Cambridge University.

Hau-Shik (front row, far left) was at St John's College, Cambridge University, from 1921 to 1924.

Hau-Shik (front row, centre) with other officers of the South Division, Air Raid Precaution (ARP) Kuala Lumpur, 12 November 1941.

Hau-Shik spent the war years in India. Here, Hau-Shik (fifth from right, second row) at the Baroda Open Golf Tournament 1945.

Hau-Shik and his wife Kwan Choi Lin, both in traditional Chinese dress.

A family portrait taken during the war years, which the family spent in India, 1942–45.

Kwan Choi Lin, Hau-Shik's wife.

Hau-Shik in ceremonial dress to receive his knighthood.

A family portrait of the Lee family, taken in 1960.

Hau-Shik with British High Commissioner in Malaya, Field Marshal Sir Gerald Templer. Clough Thuraisingham, Member for Education in the Legislative Council, is second from right. Hau-Shik was Member for Railways and Ports.

Hau-Shik with Tunku Abdul Rahman, Malaya's first Prime Minister.

Hau-Shik speaking at a Malayan Chinese Association general assembly.

Prime Minister Tunku Abdul Rahman, Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Education Abdul Razak Hussein and Minister of Finance Lee Hau-Shik.

Hau-Shik with Mohamed Khir Johari, Malaya's first Minister of Education, on the occasion of a donation from his bank to the World Wide Fund for Nature of Malaysia (WWF) of which Khir Johari was the president.

Hau-Shik with Tan Siew Sin, his successor as Minister of Finance.

From left, Abdul Razak Hussein, Lee Hau-Shik, Ismail Abdul Rahman, V.T. Sambanthan, Sulaiman Abdul Rahman and Ong Yoke Lin. Hau-Shik was conferred a Tunship in 1957.

Hau-Shik wearing his Tunship medallion.

Hau-Shik receiving the award of Tunship from the Yang di-Pertuan Agong in 1957.

Golf was Hau-Shik's favourite pastime activity.

A rare picture of a smiling Hau-Shik. Here, he was about to board an MSA flight.

The Lee Clan Association was founded in 1948, with Hau-Shik as its first president. This picture was taken at the 1955 launching of the association's new building.

Hau-Shik and his delegation to an International Tin Council meeting in Washington.

Hau-Shik represented Malayan interests fervently at International Tin Council meetings until 1960.

Hau-Shik (centre, front row), president of the Malayan Olympic Council, with council members, 1958.

Hau-Shik was the Chief of Mission at the Asian Games in 1958.

Hau-Shik went into banking after his retirement from politics, and founded the Development & Commercial Bank. The picture is from the official opening of the bank, in 1966.

Hau-Shik and his wife Kwan Choi Lin, with England's Queen Elizabeth II and Prince Philip, and Princess Anne, during the Queen's visit to Malaysia in 1972.

Hau-Shik and his wife Kwan Choi Lin with England's Princess Margaret during her visit to Malaysia in 1980.

Hau-Shik celebrating his 82nd birthday

Prime Minister Dr Mahathir Mohamed, with Alex Lee at Hau-Shik's wake. Hau-Shik's funeral took place on Sunday, 26 June 1988.

Three of Hau-Shik's sons at his wake, in June 1988 (from left to right: Douglas, Thomas and Alex).