Discover the wide world of Islamic literature.

Periodica Islamica is an international contents journal. In its quarterly issues it reproduces tables of contents from a wide variety of serials, periodicals and other recurring publications worldwide. These primary publications are selected for indexing by Periodica Islamica on the basis of their significance for religious, cultural, socioeconomic and political affairs of the Muslim World.

Periodica Islamica is the premiere source of reference for all multi-disciplinary discourses on the world of Islam. Browsing through any issue of Periodica Islamica is like visiting your library 100 times over. Four times a year, in a highly compact format, it delivers indispensable information on a broad spectrum of disciplines explicitly or implicitly related to Islamic issues.

If you want to know the Muslim World better, you need to know Periodica Islamica better.

It is a vital time for Asian studies.

SUBSCRIBE to the Asian Studies Review.

The Asian Studies Review is the journal of the Asian Studies Association of Australia, Australia's peak organisation for all those interested in the study of Asia in Australia. Through their membership of the ASAA, the Asian Studies Review reaches over 800 academics, students, teachers, businesspeople, public administrators and policy makers, not only in Australia but also overseas.

The Asian Studies Review is just as valuable a resource for overseas readers.

By receiving the Review, they are able to keep up to date with major debates and initiatives in Asian studies in Australia.

In 1992

- Ethics and International Politics
- Economic Rationalism and Asian Studies
- On Communicative Competence
- Asian Studies and Education

Reviews

A large proportion of each issue is devoted to reviews of books chosen in light of their relevance to Asia, timeliness and significance - a particularly valuable resource for school librarians.

Contemporary Southeast Asia is a journal that specializes in the politics, international relations and security-related issues of Southeast Asia and its wider geostrategic environment. Although it was originally conceived as a more general journal of the social sciences in 1979, CSEA has come to focus more closely on the concerns of the Institute’s Regional Strategic Studies Programme since 1987. Apart from serving as a reliable and up-to-date source of information on various events and trends in regional politics, international relations and security questions that affect Southeast Asia, CSEA also publishes the results of original research on these subjects by both scholars and other interested persons.

Contemporary Southeast Asia is published quarterly in June, September, December and March by the Institute of Southeast Asian Studies.
