Asia in Europe,
Europe in Asia
The Institute of Southeast Asian Studies (ISEAS) was established as an autonomous organization in 1968. It is a regional centre dedicated to the study of socio-political, security and economic trends and developments in Southeast Asia and its wider geostrategic and economic environment.

The Institute’s research programmes are the Regional Economic Studies (RES, including ASEAN and APEC), Regional Strategic and Political Studies (RSPS), and Regional Social and Cultural Studies (RSCS).

ISEAS Publications, an established academic press, has issued more than 1,000 books and journals. It is the largest scholarly publisher of research about Southeast Asia from within the region. ISEAS Publications works with many other academic and trade publishers and distributors to disseminate important research and analyses from and about Southeast Asia to the rest of the world.

The International Institute for Asian Studies (IIAS) is a postdoctoral research centre based in Leiden and Amsterdam, the Netherlands. Its main objective is to encourage the study of Asia and to promote national and international co-operation in this field.

The geographical scope of the institute covers South Asia, Southeast Asia, East Asia, and Central Asia. The institute focuses on the humanities and the social sciences and, where relevant, on their interaction with other sciences. English is the official language at the IIAS.

The IIAS organizes seminars, workshops and conferences, publishes a newsletter (circulation approximately 20,000 copies) and has set up various academic publication series. It has established a database which contains information about researchers and academic institutes in the field of Asian Studies within Europe and worldwide.

We are grateful for the generous research grant received from the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences, National University of Singapore, which enabled us to bring together scholars from Europe and Asia from different disciplinary backgrounds at a workshop, “Asia in Europe, Europe in Asia” held at Singapore in December 2001. The present volume brings together a selection of the revised papers presented at the workshop. The editors would wish to extend their gratitude to the publishers, the Institute of Southeast Asian Studies, Singapore (ISEAS), for their meticulous preparing and editing of the final manuscript. We would also like to thank the International Institute for Asian Studies (IIAS) in Leiden/Amsterdam for their support.
