References

References

References

Callister, P. and Didham, R., 2007. Background paper prepared for Thought Leaders Dialogue - With the Pacific ... About the Pacific, Auckland, 30-31 August.

Pro-Poor Policy Choices in Asia jointly organized by the Refugee and Migratory Movements Research Unit, Bangladesh and the Department for International Development, UK, Dhaka, Bangladesh, 22-24 June 2003.

Department of Immigration and Citizenship (DIAC). Immigration Update, various issues, AGPS, Canberra.

Department of Labour, 2006. Migration Trends 2005/06, Department of Labour, Wellington.

Gibson, K., 1983. Political Economy and International Labour Migration: The Case of Polynesians in New Zealand, New Zealand Geographer; 39, 1, pp. 29-42

References

References

International Organisation for Migration (IOM), 2005. Engaging Diasporas as Development Partners, for Home and Destination Countries: A Policy Roadmap – Paper of the IOM.

References

Highly Skilled Workers: From Statistical Analysis to the Formulation of Policies’ Seminar organized by OECD (DSTI/DEELSA), Paris, 11-12 June.
Ordúz Cárdenas, Néstor A., 2008 Colombian Labour Migration, PECC-ABAC Joint Project, Research Center for Colombian International Migration.
References

(CEMIC), Colombia Nos Une Program, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Colombia. February.

Amidst the Crisis: Can it Deliver its Promises to the Poor?, Utrecht, The Netherlands, 23 April.

References

Labour Mobility in the Asia-Pacific Region: Implications for Business and Cooperation, Seoul, 25-26 March.
References

Woo Morales, O., 2008 Demographic Change and International Labour Mobility in the Asia-Pacific Region: Implications for Business and Cooperation, Migration of Laborers: A Mexican Case-Study, PECC-ABAC Joint Project, Department of Socio-Urban Studies, University of Guadalajara, February.

References

