

1. Shmuel Sadka, David's great-grandfather. Sadka's daughter Farha married Nissim Mashal, David's paternal grandfather. Source: David Marshall Collection, ISEAS Library.

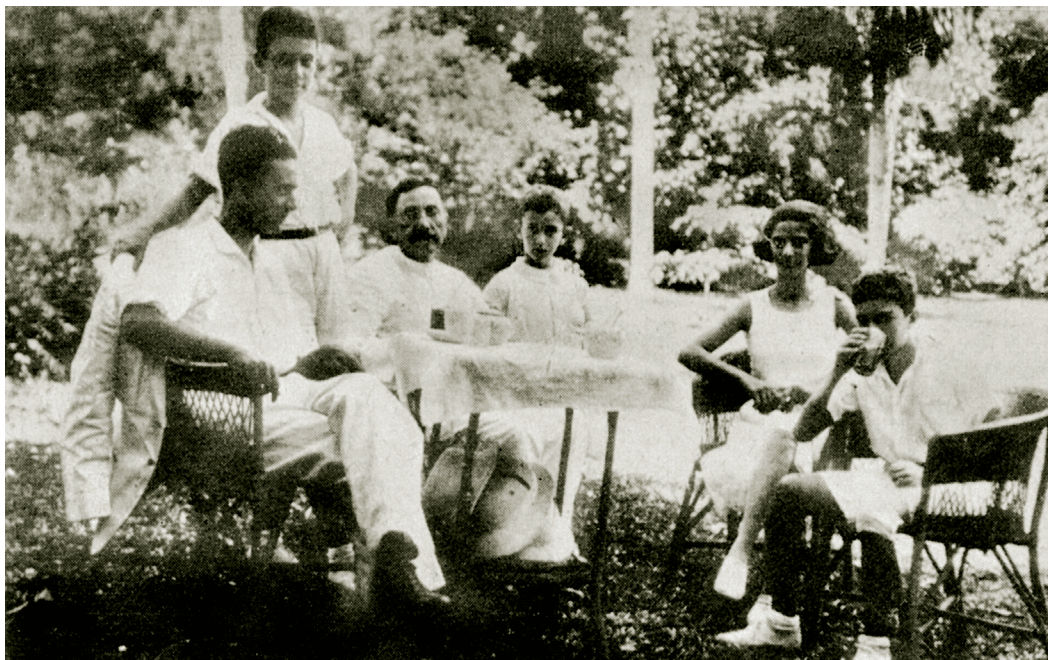

2. Farha Sadka's sisters and families. From left: Esther Sadka & her 3 children; Saddick Sassoon, Esther's husband; and Chahla Sadka and her children. Seated is Saul Tweg, Chahla's husband. Source: David Marshall Collection, ISEAS Library.

3. Top left: Farha Sadka, wife of Nissim Mashal and mother of Saul Mashal, David's father. Source: David Marshall Collection, ISEAS Library. 4. Top right: David's paternal grandfather, Nissim Mashal. Source: David Marshall Collection, ISEAS Library.

5. Top: The Marshall family at the Botanic Gardens in 1930. From left: David, Sonny, Saul, Reggie, Rose, and Meyer.
Source: David Marshall Collection, ISEAS Library.

6. & 7. Below, left & right: Saul Nissim Marshall in Australia in the late 1940s. Source: David Marshall Collection, ISEAS Library.

8. Top: David (centre), leaving for Switzerland in 1925. Tan Ah Tah (right), was on the way to read law at Cambridge on a Queen's Scholarship. Tan later became Singapore's first Asian Supreme Court judge. Source: David Marshall Collection, ISEAS Library. 9. Bottom left: David feeding pigeons in St Marks' Square, Venice during a recuperation trip in 1925. Source: Malayan Monthly. 10. Bottom right: David, working at his books in Switzerland in 1925. Source: Malayan Monthly.

11. Left: David with tennis racket. Photograph quite possibly taken in Europe in the 1920s. Source: David Marshall Collection, ISEAS Library.

12. Top: A very young David, playing with a rabbit. Date unknown but most probably in early 1920s. Source: David Marshall Collection, ISEAS Library.

13. Bottom: David leaving for London on board the MM Felix Rousel in July 1934. David is standing third from the right. Source: David Marshall Collection, ISEAS Library.

14. Top left: Dapper in striped double-breasted suit (late 1920s).

15. Top right: David the swimming enthusiast.

16. Left: Outside his father's house in Katong.

17. Bottom: On the tennis court

Source: David Marshall Collection, ISEAS Library.

18. Left: David, relaxing on the tennis court during his Belgian sojourn in 1929. Source: David Marshall Collection, ISEAS Library.

19. Bottom left: David in the uniform of a private soldier as a member of the Straits Settlements Volunteer Force, outside his father's house in Katong. Source: David Marshall Collection, ISEAS Library.

20. Bottom right: An emaciated David during World War II, taken at his POW camp in Japan. Source: David Marshall Collection, ISEAS Library.

21. Overleaf top: David and his camp mates at the Japanese POW Camp in Nisi-Asibetsu, Japan at the end of the War. He is standing in the middle of the picture, pipe in mouth. Source: David Marshall Collection, ISEAS Library.

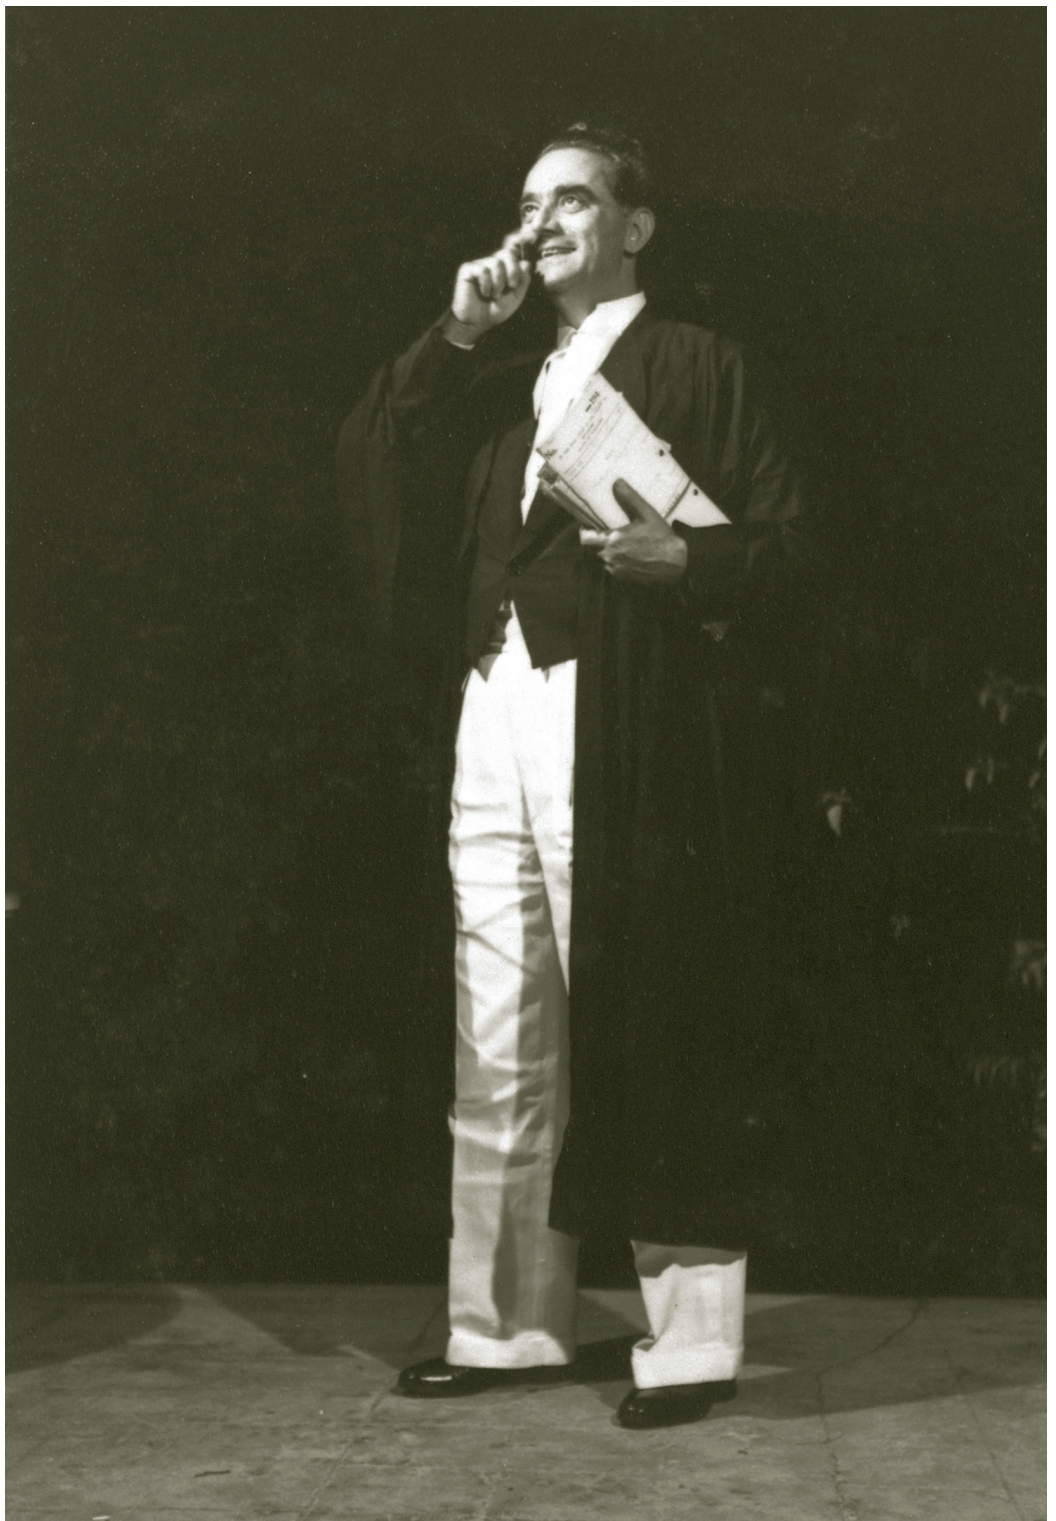

22. Overleaf bottom: The Marshall clan in Perth in 1953. Back row, left to right: David, Rose, and Sonny. Front row, left to right: Meyer, father Saul, and Reg. Source: David Marshall Collection, ISEAS Library.

23. & 24. David the brilliant lawyer. Studio photographs from late 1940s. Source: David Marshall Collection, ISEAS Library.

25. David on the campaign trail. Source: David Marshall Collection, ISEAS Library.

26. David on the way to cast his vote, 1955. Source: The Straits Times.

27. David victorious, acknowledging his cheering supporters at the Victoria Memorial Hall, 2 April 1955. Source: The Straits Times.

28. Taking his oath of office as Assemblyman for Anson, 1961. Source: The Straits Times.

29. Members of the Labour Front gather at David's apartment at Meyer Mansions to strategise on 3 April 1955. Victor Mendis (extreme left); JM Jumabhoy (third from left); Lim Yew Hock (fifth from left); Richard Chuan Hoe Lim (sixth from left); Francis Thomas (seventh from left); and David (extreme right). Source: The Straits Times.

30. David leaving Government House in his trademark open-top Jaguar, SF 1171 after meeting Governor John Nicoll to discuss the formation of the Government, April 1955. Source: The Straits Times.

31. Presenting his cabinet to the people 'under the Old Apple Tree' at Empress place. Standing behind David are Armand J Braga, JM Jumabhoj and Francis Thomas. Source: The Straits Times.

32. Left: The first cabinet outside the steps of Government House after their swearing in. Front row left to right: Chew Swee Kee (Minister for Education); David Marshall (Chief Minister and Minister for Commerce); Governor Sir John Nicoll; William AC Goode (Chief Secretary); Edward John Davies (Attorney-General). Back row left to right: Francis Thomas (Minister for Communications & Works); Tom Hart (Financial Secretary); Lim Yew Hock (Minister for Labour & Welfare); Abdul Hamid bin Haji Jumat (Minister for Local Government, Lands & Housing); Armand J Braga (Minister for Health); and JM Jumabhoy (Assistant Minister for Commerce). Source: David Marshall Collection, ISEAS Library.

33. Top: David with Governor Sir John Nicoll, April 1955. This photograph belies the intense dislike the two men had for each other. Source: The Straits Times.

34. Bottom: Welcoming the new Governor, Sir Robert Brown Black at Kallang Airport. David walks with Sir Robert while Chief Secretary William Goode accompanies Lady Black. Source: David Marshall Collection, ISEAS Library.

35. David at his office on the first day of work at the Ministry of Commerce and Industry in Fullerton Building. Source: The Straits Times.

36. David, with Governor Sir Robert Black, welcoming Secretary of State for the Colonies, Sir Alan Lennox-Boyd, at Kallang Airport on 31 July 1955. Source: The Straits Times.

37. David with his old friend Sir Malcolm MacDonald, Commissioner-General for Southeast Asia, at the Padang. Source: Sim Swee Seng.

38. David Meeting Tunku Abdul Rahman in Johore in 1955. Source: Nanyang Siang Pau.

39. Top: David listening intently at one of his Meet-the-People sessions which he held at the Assembly House. Source: David Marshall Collection, ISEAS Library.

40. Bottom: Crowds milling around and waiting their turn to see the Chief Minister during a Meet-the-People session at the Assembly House. Source: David Marshall Collection, ISEAS Library.

