The Editor invites submission of manuscripts within the field of domestic politics, strategic/security issues, political economy, regionalism and international affairs as they impinge on Southeast Asian and the wider Asia-Pacific region. Manuscripts should be double-spaced and between 6,000–8,000 words, including endnotes and an abstract. Research findings of shorter length, as well as reports of on-going research projects, are also invited. Manuscripts should be in Word-format and should be sent electronically to the e-mail address below. CSEA uses endnotes and follows the rules set out in Chapter 15 of the Chicago Manual Style, 12th edition. Authors should use British English. CSEA does not accept manuscripts that have already been published or are simultaneously being considered for publication elsewhere. Manuscripts accepted for consideration will be refereed by external readers.

EDITOR'S NOTE

The editorial committee is proud to announce Mr Kuik Cheng-Chwee as the winner of the 2009 Michael Leifer Memorial Prize. Mr Kuik was awarded the prize for his article "The Essence of Hedging: Malaysia and Singapore's Response to a Rising China" which appeared in the August 2008 issue of Contemporary Southeast Asia. The award, established in memory of the late Michael Leifer, Professor Emeritus in International Relations at the London School of Economics, is given biennially for the best article to appear in one of the three ISEAS journals, namely ASEAN Economic Bulletin, Contemporary Southeast Asia and SOJOURN. Its selection, by ISEAS' International Advisory Panel, is based on originality, conceptual clarity and soundness, as well as its contribution to Southeast Asian scholarship. The award was presented to Mr Kuik at ISEAS on 26 February 2010.
