

Reproduced from View from the 19th Floor: Reflections of the First APEC Executive Director by William Bodde Jr. (Singapore: Institute of Southeast Asian Studies, 1994). This version was obtained electronically direct from the publisher on condition that copyright is not infringed. No part of this publication may be reproduced without the prior permission of the Institute of Southeast Asian Studies. Individual articles are available at < <http://bookshop.iseas.edu.sg> >

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

William Bodde, Jr. is Senior Advisor to the Pacific Basin Economic Council, United States Member Committee, a member of the Project ASPIRE International Advisory Board, and advisor to the Chairman of the APEC Eminent Persons Group. He received a B.A. in Political Science and History and a Masters degree from the Johns Hopkins School of Advanced International Studies. Active for over thirty years as an American diplomat in Asia, Europe, the Pacific Islands and Washington, D.C., Ambassador Bodde was a senior advisor to Presidents Jimmy Carter, Ronald Reagan, and George Bush and served as the first Executive Director of APEC. He is also an experienced writer and lecturer on foreign affairs.