BIBLIOGRAPHY

Detailed references to the many works on ASEAN are contained in the ASEAN bibliographies published by the Institute of Southeast Asian Studies in Singapore.

ASEAN: A Bibliography. Library Bulletin No. 11. Singapore: Institute of Southeast Asian Studies, 1976.

ASEAN: A Bibliography. Singapore: Institute of Southeast Asian Studies, 1984.

ASEAN: A Bibliography, 1981-85. Singapore: Institute of Southeast Asian Studies, 1988.

The ASEAN Secretariat has published a number of documents that are invaluable for reference purposes. Among the more important are:

ASEAN Secretariat. 10 Years ASEAN. Jakarta, 1978.

ASEAN Secretariat. ASEAN Documents Series, 1967-1987, third edition. Jakarta, 1987.

ASEAN Secretariat. ASEAN Selected Statistics 1981-1987. Jakarta, 1989.

ASEAN Newsletter. Published bi-monthly and available through the national ASEAN secretariats.

A good introduction to ASEAN is provided by

Broinowski, A., ed. Understanding ASEAN. London, Basingstoke: Macmillan Press Ltd. with Australian Institute of International Affairs, 1982.

Some of the best compilations of articles on ASEAN economic co-operation emanated from conferences include:

L.G. Martin, ed., The ASEAN Success Story: Social, Economic and Political Dimensions. Honolulu: East West Center, University of Hawaii Press, 1987.

Many of the theoretical issues on economic co-operation are discussed in the papers contained in

R. Garnaut, ed. ASEAN in a Changing Pacific and World Economy. Canberra: Australian National University Press, 1980.

Regular coverage of such issues is to be found in

ASEAN Economic Bulletin, published in March, July and November each year by the Institute of Southeast Asian Studies, Singapore.

The Institute also has a number of publications on ASEAN relations with various dialogue partners. A catalogue of publications is available on request from:

THE COMPILER

Hans Christoph Rieger was born and educated in the United Kingdom before studying engineering and economics at Berlin, Karlsruhe and Heidelberg Universities in Germany. He was awarded a Ph.D. in economics from Karlsruhe University in 1965. In 1963 he joined the South Asia Institute, Heidelberg University, where he is now a Senior Research Fellow. While on leave from 1980 to 1987 he was the representative of the Konrad Adenauer Foundation in Singapore and attached to the ASEAN Economic Research Unit of the Institute of Southeast Asian Studies there.

Dr Rieger has spent many years in various countries of Asia and has published widely on various issues of development economics, including ASEAN economic co-operation.
