

About the Author

AMITAV ACHARYA is Professor of International Relations at the School of International Service, American University, Washington, D.C. He is also the UNESCO Chair in Transnational Challenges and Governance and Chair of the University's ASEAN Studies Center at the American University. Previously, he was Professor of Global Governance at the University of Bristol; Professor, Deputy Director and Head of Research of the Institute of Defence and Strategic Studies (now the S. Rajaratnam School of International Studies), Nanyang Technological University, Singapore; Professor of Political Science at York University, Toronto; Fellow of the Asia Center, Harvard University, and Fellow of the Center for Business and Government at Harvard's John F. Kennedy School of Government.

He has held several visiting professorships and fellowships, including the Direk Jayanama Visiting Professorship in Political Science at Thammasat University, Thailand; ASEM (Asia-Europe Meeting) Chair in Regional Integration at the University of Malaya; Visiting Professorial Fellow, Institute of Southeast Asian Studies, Singapore; Senior Fellow, Asia Pacific Foundation of Canada, Vancouver; Visiting Professor, Lee Kuan Yew School for Public Policy, Singapore; and the Nelson Mandela Visiting Professorship in International Relations at Rhodes University, South Africa.

Professor Acharya's other books include: Constructing a Security Community in Southeast Asia (2nd edition, 2009); Crafting Cooperation: Regional International Institutions in Comparative Politics (co-edited, 2007); Whose Ideas Matter: Agency and Power in Asian Regionalism (2010). The latter was one of the five books shortlisted by the Asia Society for their "exceptional contributions to the understanding of contemporary Asia or US-Asia relations" for its Bernard Schwartz Book Award in 2010. His essays have appeared in the world's top academic and policy journals such as International Organization, International Security, International Studies Quarterly, World Politics, Foreign Affairs, Journal of Peace Research, Journal of Asian Studies, Survival, and Washington Quarterly. He has appeared on a wide variety of international media, including CNN International, BBC World Service, Al-Jazeera TV, CNBC, CTV (Canada) Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, Radio Australia, and Channel News Asia. His current affairs commentaries have appeared in Financial Times, International Herald Tribune, Australian Financial Review, Times of India, Indian Express, Straits Times, Jakarta Post, Bangkok Post, Far Eastern Economic Review, Japan Times, South China Morning Post, and YaleGlobal Online covering topics in international and Asian security and regionalism.