

The Compilers

OOI KEE BENG is Deputy Director of the Institute of Southeast Asian Studies. He is founder-editor of ISEAS Perspective, ISEAS Monitor and Penang Monthly. His key interests are modern nation building in Asia; Malaysian socio-politics; modern language philosophy; and world history.

SANCHITA BASU DAS is Fellow and Lead Researcher for Economic Affairs (ASEAN Studies Centre) at the Institute of Southeast Asian Studies. She is also the Coordinator of the Singapore APEC Study Centre and Co-Editor of the Journal of Southeast Asian Economies. Her research interests include: international trade; regional economic integration; and Southeast Asian economies.

TERENCE CHONG is Senior Fellow and Coordinator of the Regional Socio-Cultural Studies programme at the Institute of Southeast Asian Studies. His research interests include: Christianity in Southeast Asia, Chinese immigration in CLMV countries, and cultural globalization in the region.

MALCOLM COOK is Senior Fellow at the Institute of Southeast Asian Studies. He is also Non-resident Fellow at the Lowy Institute and Adjunct Professor at Flinders University. His research interests include: the Philippines, major power interests in Southeast Asia and Asia-Pacific regional organizations.

CASSEY LEE is Senior Fellow at the Institute of Southeast Asian Studies, and Managing Editor of the Journal of Southeast Asian Economies. His research interests include: competition policy in ASEAN; the political economy of single party dominance in Southeast Asia; and the political economy of ASEAN economic integration.

MICHAEL YEO is Research Associate at the Institute of Southeast Asian Studies, and Book Review Editor of the Journal of Southeast Asian Economies. His research interests include: commerce and society in British Malaya; global economic history; and the history of agricultural commodities.