VIETNAM'S FOREIGN POLICY UNDER DOI MOI

The ISEAS – Yusof Ishak Institute (formerly Institute of Southeast Asian Studies) is an autonomous organization established in 1968. It is a regional centre dedicated to the study of socio-political, security, and economic trends and developments in Southeast Asia and its wider geostrategic and economic environment. The Institute’s research programmes are grouped under Regional Economic Studies (RES), Regional Strategic and Political Studies (RSPS), and Regional Social and Cultural Studies (RSCS). The Institute is also home to the ASEAN Studies Centre (ASC), the Nalanda-Sriwijaya Centre (NSC), and the Singapore APEC Study Centre.

ISEAS Publishing, an established academic press, has issued more than 2,000 books and journals. It is the largest scholarly publisher of research about Southeast Asia from within the region. ISEAS Publishing works with many other academic and trade publishers and distributors to disseminate important research and analyses from and about Southeast Asia to the rest of the world.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Six out of twelve chapters in this edited volume (Chapters 3, 4, 6, 8, 11 and 12) are based on papers presented at the Vietnam Forum 2016 on “Vietnam’s Thirty Years of Doi Moi and Beyond” organized by ISEAS – Yusof Ishak Institute on 7–8 April 2016. The conference was sponsored by the Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung (KAS), which also funded the publication of this volume.

The authors of the above chapters would like to thank the participants and attendees at the conference for their comments and suggestions which contributed to the improvement of their final papers.

The editing of the volume was initially conducted by Le Hong Hiep. He would like to thank Mr Tan Chin Tiong, former Director of ISEAS – Yusof Ishak Institute, and Mr Daljit Singh, Senior Fellow and Coordinator of ISEAS’ Regional Strategic and Political Studies Programme, for their encouragement and guidance throughout the whole process. Anton Tsvetov later joined Le Hong Hiep as a co-editor and helped with the initial review and editing of five chapters. Hiep would like to thank Tsvetov for his timely help, without which this book project may have been delayed.

This edited volume is a joint effort of all the contributing authors. The editors are thankful to them for their cooperation and patience.

Some of the chapters are based on the respective authors’ previous research. Specifically, Carlyle A. Thayer’s Chapter 2 is based on the paper titled “Vietnamese Diplomacy, 1975–2015: From Member of the Socialist Camp to Proactive International Integration” that he presented at the International Conference on “Vietnam: 40 Years of Reunification, Development and Integration (1975–2015)” organized by Thu Dau Mot

University on 25 April 2015; Chapter 5 is based in part on a working paper written by Thuy T. Do during her visiting research fellowship at the Japan Institute of International Affairs in 2014; and Hoang Hai Ha's Chapter 12 is based on her PhD study titled "Analysing Normative Power Europe through Trade and Development Cooperation Policies towards Vietnam" that she undertook at Sant'Anna School of Advanced Studies, Italy, and Ghent University, Belgium. The views and opinions expressed in all chapters of this book are those of the respective authors and do not necessarily reflect the views of their institutions.

Finally, the editors and contributing authors are grateful to two anonymous reviewers for their valuable comments and suggestions that have helped to improve the manuscript, and to Anh Pham, Dickson Yeo, and Tran Chi Trung for their comments and ideas about the book cover design. They would also like to thank the editors at ISEAS Publishing for their generous and efficient assistance during the production of this book.
