Reproduced from Region, Nation and Homeland: Valorization and Adaptation in the Moro and Cordillera Resistance Discourses, by Miriam Coronel Ferrer (Singapore: ISEAS – Yusof Ishak Institute, 2020). This version was obtained electronically direct from the publisher on condition that copyright is not infringed. No part of this publication may be reproduced without the prior permission of ISEAS Publishing. Individual chapters are available at http://bookshop.iseas.edu.sg.

About the Author

Miriam Coronel Ferrer is a professor at the Department of Political Science, University of the Philippines, where she has taught courses on and published articles on the governments and politics of Southeast Asia, peace processes, human rights and international humanitarian law, civil society and democratization, among others. She chaired the government negotiating panel that signed the Comprehensive Agreement on the Bangsamoro with the Moro Islamic Liberation Front in 2014. She is currently Senior Mediation Adviser at the United Nations.