

About the Author

Geoffrey C. Gunn is Adjunct (Visiting) Professor at the University of Macau, China, and Emeritus Professor at Nagasaki University, Japan. Besides authoring regional world histories, as with History Without Borders: The Making of an Asian World Region, 1000–1800 (2011), he has published widely on the independence struggles in Cambodia, Laos, Vietnam and East Timor. His recent published work includes Ho Chi Minh in Hong Kong: Anticolonial Networks, Extradition and the Rule of Law (2021) and Imagined Geographies: The Maritime Silk Roads in World History, 100–1800 (2022). His books have been translated into Portuguese, Chinese and Bahasa Indonesia, and with articles appearing in French, Lao and Vietnamese.