NOW IN ITS 10TH YEAR

THE PACIFIC REVIEW

EDITOR: PROFESSOR RICHARD HIGGOTT,
UNIVERSITY OF WARWICK, U.K.

THE PACIFIC REVIEW is now in its tenth year and a major success. It provides an important platform for the study of the Pacific basin and an interdisciplinary forum for the exchange of ideas on this important region.

As well as its customary analysis of international relations and security issues, THE PACIFIC REVIEW is now expanding its coverage to provide enhanced economic analysis of the Pacific area. It will feature articles at the interface of the economic and the political, and will include papers from other relevant disciplines—such as contemporary history, geography and sociology.

Fully refereed, THE PACIFIC REVIEW continues to provide fast and forceful commentary on immediate policy issues.
