PACIFIC VIEWPOINT

Est. 1960

Editors
Roger Lawrence and Philip S.
Morrison

Review Editor
Pauline Keating

Pacific Viewpoint publishes the research of geographers, historians, economists, sociologists and anthropologists concerned with the systematic, regional and theoretical aspects of economic growth and social change in developed and developing societies. As such Pacific Viewpoint publishes articles dealing with development issues in all continents but focuses particularly on Asia and the Pacific.

Pacific Viewpoint publishes twice annually. The May issue is devoted to papers submitted to the journal. These include main articles, notes, commentary and book reviews.

The October issue is usually devoted to special issues edited by a guest editor. A recent special issue was devoted to

Ethnic Nationalism

Editor Ronald J. May
Pacific Viewpoint October 1990 31(2)

and included the following main articles:

The Ethnic Factor in Politics
and Ethnic Separatism in Southeast Asia

Contemporary Southeast Asia is a journal that specializes in the politics, international relations and security-related issues of Southeast Asia and its wider geostrategic environment. Although it was originally conceived as a more general journal of the social sciences in 1979, CSEA has come to focus more closely on the concerns of the Institute's Regional Strategic Studies Programme since 1987. Apart from serving as a reliable and up-to-date source of information on various events and trends in regional politics, international relations and security questions that affect Southeast Asia, CSEA also publishes the results of original research on these subjects by both scholars and other interested persons.

---

Contemporary Southeast Asia is published quarterly in June, September, December and March by the Institute of Southeast Asian Studies.
