

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Kevin Y L Tan was born and educated in Singapore. He graduated with LLB (Hons) from the Faculty of Law of the National University of Singapore in 1986 and joined the teaching staff of the same faculty that year. He later obtained his LLM (Master of Laws) and JSD (Doctor of the Science of Law) at Yale Law School. From 1986 to 2000, he taught at the Law Faculty, specializing in Constitutional and Administrative Law, Law and Government, Law and Society and International Human Rights. Since 2000, he has consulted full-time on history, heritage and publishing, and has continued to teach law part-time. Kevin has served on the editorial boards of the Malaya Law Review, the Yale Journal of International Law, the Singapore Law Review, and the Singapore Journal of International & Comparative Law (the latter two as Chief Editor).

Beyond his university duties, he has been active in many organizations, serving as National Programme Commissioner in the Singapore Scout Association (1992–95); Council Member of the National Youth Achievement Award Council (since 1998), Singapore Red Cross Society (since 1999), CSCAP (1998–2002), Board Member of the Preservation of Monuments Board (1998–2004), Singapore Academy of Law Legal Heritage Committee (since 1999), and Executive Director of the Society of International Law, Singapore (1998–2003); Treasurer and then President of the Roundtable, a non-partisan political discussion group (1999–2002).

Kevin has published widely in his fields of expertise and is the author and editor of some 20 books and 50 academic articles. He is currently a director of Equilibrium Consulting Pte Ltd, President of the Singapore Heritage Society, Chairman of the Foundation for the Development of International Law in Asia (DILA), and Adjunct Professor at the Faculty of Law, National University of Singapore.